AN ABLE OFFICIAL.

General Agent Stockhouse of the Rock Island & Peoria.

HIS LONG SERVICE WITH THE ROAD.

Over Thirty Years Identified With Railway Companies, He Has Become One of the Important Lights in the Affairs of the Western Passenger Association.

With the passenger and freight affairs of the Rock Island & Peoria railway system to look after, Robert Stockhouse shoulders one of the most important positions in connection with the executive business of that company—and one that requires ability which can only be attained after long and constant application in the several departments of the railroad business. Mr. Stockhouse is a shrewd and deep thinking man whose broad knowledge of matters coming in connection with his official affairs has won him a prominent standing in the Western Passenger association, which embraces all of railroads of the western country. Likewise does Mr. Stockhouse stand high among Rock Island's business men with whom he is closely associated in many affairs. His long connection with the Peoria Railway company has made him popular not only in this particular locality, but in many sections of the state.

Mr. Stockhouse began his railroad career as freight auditor for the Great Western railroad of Illinois at Springfield in 1863. Afterward he was chief clerk of General Freight Agent E. C. Smith, and then left the service of the company to assume the duties of assistant secretary of state under Hon. Sharon Tyndale. In 1870 he was appointed agent for the Rockford, Rock Island & St. Louis at Beardstown, and when the Ohio & Mississippi railroad was finished from Shawneetown to Beardstown he was also appointed agent of that company at the latter place, being in charge of the freight and passenger business of both companies. In 1874 he was appointed representative of the Rockford, Rock Island & St. Louis in this city, and two years later became contracting agent for the Rock Island & Peoria at Davenport. Two years afterward found him serving the same company as agent at Peoria, while in 1880 he was promoted to the general agency of the Rock Island & Peoria and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific companies at Peoria. Two years in this capacity and Mr. Stockhouse was transferred to this city to become treasurer and paymaster of the company with which he is identified today, having been given the general freight and passenger agency in 1884.

Many improvements in the traffic facilities of the road are the result of Mr. Stockhouse's energy and enterprise. He has been with the road twenty years.

Railway Gossip.
At Kough's 513 engine is out of the Rock Island shops at Chicago.

Merwin Wynne has been promoted from the shops to extra fireman on the Rock Island.

John McCormick is breaking in the Rock Island's 189 engine after a visit to the repair shops.

James Tucker's engine, 937, is around again after a trip to the Rock Island's shops in the windy city.

Foreman W. H. Stocks, of the Rock Island, has been called to Chicago by the serious illness of his father.

Al Lund, who runs the Rock Island's new monster locomotive, is laid up at his home in Chicago with illness. His position is being filled by Fred Brewer. The 1101 makes regular trips to the city now.

Agent L. H. Greer, of the Milwaukee, is nursing a sore finger which he sustained while explaining to some friends the other evening how his little son, Horace, had the top of one of his fingers lacerated by having it caught in the sprocket wheel of a bike. Mr. Greer's finger got caught the same way.

Attaches of the Rock Island roundhouse are having considerable fun over one of the hostler's misfortune in being left at Clinton Decoration day in company with two lady friends, with whom he was enjoying a skiff ride when the good ship sailed away. They managed to get home on a Burlington train that night, however.

Three of the Rock Island's 17-inch cylinder Towmby engines, formerly used on the eastern Iowa division have been purchased by the Rock Island & Peoria railway and have been repainted and overhauled and will be put on that company's passenger runs. The engines now on these runs will be put into the freight business, and three locomotives which have been on the ragged edge for a couple of years relegated to the scrap pile.

Charles Nichols, the car sealer, furnished a good illustration of his influence over the bee kingdom at the Rock Island depot yesterday by entrapping whole swarms of the honeybees. It was an unusually large delegation, which flew in after one of the trains. Charles spotted them hovering about the coach. This he mounted with a good-sized box and a club. He began doing tambourine dance, and in a few minutes it was necessary for him to move, as the bees began to assemble around the box. They all piled in and Charles secured his prize and took it home.

THEIR SECOND ANNUAL MEETING.

Session of Officers, Grand Presentation and Banquet at the Tower-Papers Read and Pleasant Social Occasion—Historical Address.

The second annual banquet and business meeting of the Tri-City Druggists' association was held in the Inn at Black Hawk's Watch Tower last evening. A party of 60 including the members of the association and their ladies were present. At a business meeting of the organization preceding the festivities of the evening, officers were elected as follows:

President—J. W. Ballard, Davenport.

Vice President—William Glendinning, Moline.

Secretary—Charles E. Battles, Moline.

Treasurer—T. H. Thomas, Rock Island.

Corresponding Secretary—William Ulmeyer, Rock Island.

Executive Committee—William Ulmeyer and August Heimbeck, Rock Island; C. E. Battles and J. H. Schreck, Moline; J. W. Ballard and J. E. Driscoll, Davenport.

W. H. Marshall displayed a beautiful cherry gavel neatly inscribed, "Tri-City Druggists' Association," and bearing the skull and cross bones, which William Ulmeyer presented to the association on behalf of the Rock Island druggists.

The Banquet.
The banquet followed, in which after a season of appreciation of Manager Linn's spread, addresses especially prepared for the occasion were delivered. C. E. Battles spoke on "Things as They Used to Be," his remarks being of a historical character, and tracing the druggist in the three cities from the first in Moline in 1854, at Davenport in 1855, and Rock Island in 1858, to the present day. A fitting response was made by J. H. Harrison, of Davenport, when J. W. Ballard spoke on "Things as They Are," advancing many wholesome thoughts.

"The Druggist of the Future" was entertainingly discussed by August Heimbeck, when Frank Nadler responded neatly to the toast, "The Ladies."

It was altogether an exceedingly pleasant and profitable meeting for the profession in the three cities, which is about as closely and essentially identified with our general welfare as any calling to which mortal devotes his talents.

Police Points.
John Miller, of Davenport, was taxed $3 and costs for a jug. He paid.

Frank Parker, who attempted to burglarize A. Boro's home on Third avenue the other evening, William McNeill and Harry Hynes, two other boobies, were given 60 days apiece for vagrancy.

James Gillette, the broken down piano tuner, was found stretched out on Fifth avenue, up town today. His face was bruised. A load of hops and the heat were responsible for his inability to navigate.

Court Adjourns.
Judge Bigelow wound up the affairs of the May term of the circuit court yesterday afternoon and adjourned.

A special session will be held in July to clear the criminal calendar. Court will be convened on the 6th.

A motion for a new trial in the Ruby-Moline Central Street railway case was overruled and defendant's counsel gave notice of an appeal.

An order requiring John Dowar to pay $10 a month alimony was entered.

Coming Marriages.
Announcement is made of the engagement of George Hess, of the grocery firm of Hess Bros., and Miss Aoshah Crane, of the Rock Island public school teaching corps. The wedding will occur this month.

The engagement of William Furlong, the popular Fifth avenue tonsorialist, and Miss Mary Foley, a well known Moline young lady, is announced. The wedding occurs this month.

The Ideal Franchise.
James L. Francis, alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal franchise for coughs, colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this ideal cough remedy now. Trial bottles free at Hart's & Ulmeyer's drug store.
